OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO THE INSTITUTION AWARD

The Outstanding Service to the Institution Award honors a member of the School of Allied Health Professions for their outstanding and dedicated service to the campus, and whose activities as a faculty member have significantly enhanced the quality of the campus as an educational institution and community of scholars. This annual award recognizes service, which is essential to the ideal of shared governance, and contributions that have had a lasting and significant impact on the excellence of the School of Allied Health.

Purpose: The Outstanding Institution Service Award is presented annually to a faculty member who provides outstanding service to the School of Allied Health Professions and serves as a role model to others by exemplifying our mission. This award recognizes faculty who have a history of exemplary institutional service that has benefited the department and/or the University including, but not limited to, grants, committee work.

Eligibility: Any full-time SAHP faculty member at LSUHSC. A previous recipient of this award is not eligible for the same award in consecutive years of service.

Process: Any faculty member may self-nominate or be nominated by a faculty colleague or department chair. Recipients will be selected based on evidence provided by completion of the nomination eligibility criteria form and by providing an updated annual CV of the nominee. Nomination forms may be found at School of Allied Health Professions - LSU Health New Orleans \(lsuhsc.edu\), downloaded, and submitted to Brittney Wright, bwrig1@lsuhsc.edu, the Faculty Assembly President, via email attachment with the nominee's CV.

Award: The award will be announced and presented during the Faculty Assembly annual meeting in December.

Deadline: All nominations will be accepted starting August 16, 2021 and must be received by October 1, 2021. There will be no exceptions.
