Ethical Considerations Surrounding Confidentiality in Telehealth Play Therapy

Kellie Giorgio Camelford, Ph.D., LPC-S, NCC, NCSC, RPT

With play therapists transitioning to telehealth, it is important for therapists to have a working understanding of the ethical and legal issues related to confidentiality for telehealth play therapy. This webinar will highlight ethical standards from the Association for Play Therapy and the American Counseling Association, as well as discuss best practices for incorporating confidentiality practices via telehealth for play therapy.

Objectives:

1. Participants will review and discuss applicable ethical standards from the American Counseling Association and the Association for Play Therapy related to confidentiality in play therapy.
2. Participants will discuss and share best practices related to confidentiality via telehealth play therapy.
3. Participants will compile and plan approaches to confidentiality for telehealth play therapy.
